LEADERS IN ORIENT MARKSMEN OF EXPRESS DESIRE FOR THIS ISLAND PEACE ON THE PACIFIC WIN HONORS

Militaristic Spirit Not in Evidence Declares Edward P. Bell, Noted Newspaperman, Who Returned Today After Conferences With Prominent Men of China, Japan and Philippines.

"The countries of the Orient are all for peace."
"The men who count for anything in the Far East are imbued with a desire to do everything in their power to make the peace of the Pacific secure."

"That, in a few words, sums up my mission to the Orient."
The speaker was Edward Price Bell, internationally known journalist and special representative of The Chicago Daily News, who returned to-day on the liner President Madison after interviewing the most powerful and influential men in China, Japan and the Philippines, on Pacific problems.

The Pacific problem, which is a dominant question in the minds of the statesmen of the world, was the subject of an interview secured by Mr. Bell from Premier Mackenzie King prior to the departure of the distinguished newspaperman from this country for the Far East.

CONFERRED WITH KATO
While in the Orient, Mr. Bell interviewed on the same question, Premier Takashi Kato of Japan; Baron Shidehara, Japan's foreign minister; Tang Shao-yi, former premier of China, and probably one of the strongest men in China to-day; General Leonard Wood, Governor of the Philippine Islands, and Manuel Quezon and Senator Osmena, two of the most outstanding political figures in the Philippines.

All these are able and far-sighted men, and are sincere in their expressed desire for peace on the Pacific," emphasized Mr. Bell.

ELECTION DECISION MAY BE DELAYED COUPLE OF WEEKS

Federal Cabinet May Not Meet Again Till Week After Next, it is Stated

Many Observers Believe Voting Will Take Place Late in Month of October

Ottawa, Aug. 21.—Decision as to whether there is to be a Federal general election will not be reached before the next meeting of the Cabinet at the earliest, and some little time may pass before there is a definite announcement, it was stated by a member of the Government to-day. When the Cabinet will meet has not been decided. Consequently no notice of meeting has been issued as yet. There may not be another gathering of the Ministers until the week after next.

Among members and prominent party men who are constantly drifting in and out of Ottawa, interviewing Ministers and endeavoring to find out the probabilities, the impression prevails dissolution is impending, with a general election towards the end of October.

Mr. Premier King remains at his summer home in Kingsmere, and from the seclusion of his retreat is said to be conducting negotiations looking to Cabinet reconstruction. It was there he was visited by Premier Dunning, who came to Ottawa for a few days and left again for Saskatchewan without giving any indication as to his intentions. The common impression is that he has the offer of a portfolio in a reconstructed Cabinet, but the King's confirmation has been made of this.

To what extent Premier King will reconstruct his Cabinet will depend on the decision in regard to the election. If there is to be an appeal to the people this Fall there may be a number of Cabinet changes.

Several of the Ministers who were here for the Cabinet meetings earlier in the week have returned to their homes. The Governor-General, whose arrival from the West probably will be awaited before there is any formal announcement, is expected back on Friday of next week.

Team Will Include Twelve Other Canadians; Tests Shot at Ottawa

Victoria and Esquimalt are to provide one-third of the team of marksmen Canada will send to the Bisley meet next year. News that the local riflemen had earned that rare distinction for this part of British Columbia reached here to-day from the Connaught Range at Ottawa, where men from all parts of Canada took part in the annual tests which are used as a basis for the choice of the team. Six marksmen are to go to the Old Country from Victoria and Esquimalt.

The Eastern dispatch was as follows:

DEATH OF DEAN RYLE REGRETTED IN CANADA

Late Rector of Westminster Abbey Personally Known to Many Canadians

London, Aug. 21 (Canadian Press Cable).—Many Canadians will regret to learn of the death after a prolonged illness of Right Rev. Herbert Edward Ryle, Dean of Westminster since 1911 and formerly Bishop of Winchester.

Dr. Ryle, as chief custodian of Westminster Abbey, took a constant pleasure in extending a cordial but unassuming welcome to overseas visitors. It was a great delight to him that during the years the custom grew up for the Canadian fighting battalions, when ordered to France, to deposit their colors at the base of Wolfe's monument in the Abbey.

JUBILEE SERVICE

It was largely the good offices of Bishop Ryle that the Canadian Confederation Jubilee in 1917 was celebrated with special service in Westminster Abbey, the service being attended by the King and Queen.

Many Canadians prominent in the arts, science and literature will surely hold happy remembrance of the simple and sincere hospitality extended to them by Bishop Ryle at the Westminster Deanery.

ESCAPED CONVICTS SEEN BY AUTO MAN

Three Desperadoes From Salem Prison at Toledo, Ore., Last Night

Chehalis, Wash., Aug. 21.—Three men in an Oregon licensed automobile, who are believed to be the escaped convicts from the penitentiary at Salem, stopped at Toledo, twenty miles south of here, last night.

The word came from the owner of the service station in Toledo, where a car containing three men drove up to the station, the men asking to have their gasoline tank filled. The man complied all the more readily when he noted the men all carried rifles.

When the tank was filled the motorists told the man to "go to—" and speed away.

LIVES MENACED

Yakima, Wash., Aug. 21.—Two herd riders for sheep men in the East Selah district, near here, were fired upon from ambush yesterday, according to a report received at the sheriff's office. Glen Haynes said one charge passed the saddlehorn as he was crossing a ridge.

Both Haynes and Phil Simons, another rider, have been targets several times for men in ambush, they report.

BRITAIN WORKING BACK TO PROSPERITY DESPITE ALL OBSTACLES, SAYS BALFOUR

Leading British Industrialist Assails Pessimists and Shows That Britain Now Doing Five Per Cent More of World's Trade Than Ever; Industrial Troubles Exaggerated Abroad, He Affirms; Opposes Political Interference in Business and Tariffs on Foreign Foodstuffs; Big Immigration Needed.

Despite staggering burdens of war taxation, despite the ruin of many of her best markets, despite industrial troubles at home, Great Britain is slowly moving back to her old place in the world's business, Sir Arthur Balfour, of Sheffield, one of England's leading industrialists, declared in a mastery address before the Canadian Club and the Chamber of Commerce at a joint luncheon meeting in the Empress Hotel to-day.

In answer to pessimistic forecasts about Britain's business future, Sir Arthur pointed to a solitary fact which spoke more for the Old Country's commercial strength than anything else—England to-day is doing five per cent more of the world's trade as it exists than she ever did before.

In the face of that condition Sir Arthur assailed those who lacked confidence in Britain's position. Industrial difficulties in England, although serious, were not nearly so grave as was generally believed, he asserted. "Actually," he declared, "the relations between employers and workers in England are very good indeed. There is too much psychological depression to-day. We should make the world know that the British Empire is the same force it has always been and that it will be a greater force than ever in the future."

Referring to Canada's relations with Britain, Sir Arthur announced himself as a vigorous advocate of British immigration to this country—immigration on a large scale to relieve Britain of its unemployment and housing problems. He said he would like to see Britain purchase all her foodstuffs within the British Empire if possible, but declared emphatically that it was not to be.

Mr. Justice Morrison Refuses Him Stay of Execution After September 4

Request Will Be That Appeal Court Hold Emergency Sitting to Hear Statements

Vancouver, Aug. 21.—Stay of execution of Omer Benjamin Baker, sentenced to be hanged September 4 with his confederate, Harry Frederick Myers, alias Sewash, for the murder of Captain W. J. Gillis last September near Sidney Island, was refused this morning by Mr. Justice Morrison in the Supreme Court. Application for postponement of the hanging was made by R. C. Lowe on behalf of Baker. No one appeared for Myers.

The request was made on the ground of an appeal before the British Columbia Appeal Court, which is to sit October 6.

Permission has been granted counsel for Baker to apply for a special session of the Appeal Court to hear the case. In the event of a further failure in his efforts to save his client from the gallows, counsel has been advised he will be permitted to make the request to the Department of Justice at Ottawa.

DR. S. F. TOLMIE GIVES ADDRESS AT ANNUAL BANQUET

B.C. Agricultural Association Entertains Livestock Men at Willows

Stockmen attending the Willows exhibition were to-day entertained at luncheon at the Fair Grounds restaurant by the B.C. Agricultural Association. President W. H. Munzie welcomed the owners and stockmen on behalf of the association and asserted this year's livestock exhibition the best ever seen here.

Peter Moore, of the Colony Farm, and E. W. Van Tassel, of Wenatchee, gave hearty praise to the association and the judges for the treatment accorded those showing livestock, their remarks being accompanied by rounds of applause.

Dr. S. F. Tolmie, who was introduced by President Munzie, as "the father of this great show," recalled his first appearance at the fair forty-three years ago. Constant laughter greeted a series of humorous narratives of farm life and experiences as livestock markets.

Touching on marketing opportunities, Dr. Tolmie pointed out that the most stable market exists in England, "but we must not try to tell what the Englishman should eat. If he does not know what is good for him, no one does," he said. "That is the reason."

VICTORIA TO GET HUGE NEW PAYROLL WITH OGDEN POINT GRAIN ELEVATOR PROJECTS

Official Pay Roll of Inspectors' Staff to Reach $100,000 a Year, While Elevator Operations Will Result in Expenditure of Over $10,000,000 Annually.

Special to The Times
Vancouver, Aug. 21.—Establishment of a branch of the board of grain commissioners of Canada will be made at Victoria, following erection at Ogden Point of a $1,000,000 terminal grain elevator by Panama Pacific Grain Terminals Limited, it was announced here by Commissioner James Robinson, of the Board of Grain Commissioners of Canada, with headquarters at Fort William, Ontario.

Opening of a branch of the Grain Board on the Island would add many thousands of dollars a year to the payroll of the Capital City, Commissioner Robinson stated. A staff of highly-skilled inspectors, samplers and graders would be employed at the elevator in checking both the incoming and outgoing grain. An office staff of statisticians, manifesters and general clerks also will be maintained.

The yearly payroll for this department alone based on the experience at other terminal grain centres would be about $100,000. This would be greatly increased as other grain elevators are erected and the necessity for establishing branches of the survey and appeal boards arise.

It is also estimated that with a terminal elevator handling an average of 50,000,000 bushels of grain a year, requiring about 170 ships to transport it to the markets of the world, the total amount of money left in Victoria annually will be more than $100,000,000. This includes the amounts which will be expended in lining and trimming cargo, provisioning, inspection and weighing charges, elevator charges, profit to trade and railway freight rates.

FAIR EXECUTIVE SUMMONS ALL MEMBERS TO ATTEND. ANNUAL MEETING TO-NIGHT

With a membership more than doubled above that of last year, the British Columbia Agricultural Association will hold its annual meeting this evening at 8 o'clock in the Women's Building.

Every member is strongly urged by President Munzie and Secretary Means to make a point of being present, as business of the utmost importance to the future of the association will be laid before the gathering.

Gratified beyond words at the increase in membership which has been attained this year, the executive of the association have noted that throughout the past week a constant stream of citizens has contributed membership fees as tokens of hearty accord with the present system of management.

"The Fair is now the prime objective, the races have been relegated to their proper value as an attraction to bring visitors to see our products," said Mayor Carl Fendray this morning. "In recent years citizens had feared a trend towards making the exhibition an adjunct to the racing features. Alas—the citizens—visitors—meet at the Fair are delighted with the change for the better," he said.

Two matters of far-reaching importance to the future of the exhibition will be discussed. A series of recommendations approved by exhibitors in the home products building will be laid before the members, advising that manufacturers exhibiting home products be required to show in the home products building, and that the exhibition displays shall show no goods of outside manufacture on the same stands displaying local products.

SPACE REQUIRED

In view of the great increase in importance to the exhibition of the association executive to make strong efforts next year to attract more district exhibits such as the Spanish and Richmond entries, the necessity of exclusion from the main building of commercial displays will probably be laid before this evening's meeting.

Continuation of the present rate of increase in individual agricultural and floral entries is believed certain, in view of the increase in membership, and it is suggested that consideration measures will have to be taken to provide other accommodation for the local commercial exhibitors, who must have the displaced from the main building.

YEARLY EXHIBITORS

Prominent among the firms who have for many years supported the exhibition with commercial displays in the main building is the Bryman, Ker Miling Company, who this year show a wide variety of Victoria-made household food products and poultry feedings.

The Jameson Coffee Company attract much interest with locally packed teas, coffees, spices and flavoring extracts.

David Spencer Limited are this year featuring washing machines and vacuum carpet sweepers, the working demonstrations of these household aids proving attractive to hundreds of ladies during the week.

NESTLE'S FIRST VISIT

Nestle's Milk is a newcomer this year, occupying a central stand with a cottage constructed of the distinctive labelled blue and white cans.

Another exhibitor of long standing at the Willows is the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, which yearly takes advantage of the opportunity to advance general knowledge of health protection measures among the visitors to the fair.

WET WITHOUT ONLY

An extensive demonstration of patent roofing forms the display of the Barrett Roofing Company. This stand consists of flexible shingles of asphaltic felt, faced with crushed stone, and a constant flood of water flowing down the roof slopes, testified to the security proffered home builders.

POPULAR O' NIGHTS

Facing the magnificent floral entries, the commanding location occupied by J. S. Fry and Sons is a centre of popularity, especially with the evening attendance. Here are distributed cups of delightful cocoa, accompanied by blucita, while the stand shows a complete range of hundreds of types of the chocolates for which this British firm is famous. These goods are now made in Canada, but the British formulae are used.

Facing the main entrance is an attractively arranged display of dahlias, blossoms of unusual size, shown by Brown's Victoria Nurseries Limited.

Brooms made by the blind are shown at the fair by the Canadian National Institute For the Blind, the factory producing these fine brooms employing industrious blind workers since its commencement three-years ago.

EDUCATIONAL DATA
Much wall space in the main building is occupied by the educational displays of the Dominion and Provincial Departments of Agriculture. The former features, the work being carried out at the Experimental Farms, and gives much information as to crops and methods advisable, while the Provincial displays feature pest combating methods and the grain and grass products of British Columbia.

READING SAYS CO-OPERATION NEEDED IN INDIA

toward India, they were equally determined not to yield to pressure nor make premature concessions. This had confirmed his own view that it was for friendly co-operation alone that India could advance to her ultimate goal.

He declared the time for the revision of the constitution had not yet arrived. Indeed, if an impartial royal commission were now appointed to examine the position in light of the co-operation received, it would only result in disappointment. On the other hand, the time was opportune now for the working of the machinery of reform. The Muddan report, he observed, would remove the defects in the working out of these reforms.

The Viceroy said the financial stringency was disappearing and ministers were obtaining new resources in their programmes of improvement and development. Furthermore, the ministers would recruit their own provincial services to operate in the transferred field. The Dyrarchy could thus run even more smoothly and efficiently.

The Viceroy announced the appointment of a currency commission under the chairmanship of Lieut.-Commander Hilton Young.

He considered India's relations with her neighbors as satisfactory, no outstanding questions being under consideration.

He dwelt at length on the need of agricultural development through a formal council of agricultural organizations. The Viceroy said his terms of office was approaching an end and he pleaded for good will and co-operation, which he said offered the only path to the promised land.

The speech was frequently applauded.

The Muddan report referred to in the foregoing cable was made public last March after long study of the India question of government. It observed that the constitution in India had been in existence too short a period to enable a well founded opinion as to its success to be formed.

He considered the relation of the control of the Secretary of State for India in matters of purely Indian interests. It also recommended that Indian Ministers should carry more weight with the Governor and should have increased responsibility.

EVANGELIST OUT OF JAIL RESUMES TRIP

Kansas City, Mo., Aug. 21.—"Adam God" is ready to resume his long cruise down the river.

Seventeen years ago the trip was interrupted. The fanatic, wandering evangelist, who spent his life preaching a gospel of love, was sentenced to prison for shooting a policeman.

And now he's going to start out again.

"Adam God" was born as James Sharp, somewhere up toward the headwaters of the Mississippi river.

Away back in 1908 he assumed the name of "Adam God," took his wife and family in a crazy, battered old houseboat, and started down stream, stopped at every city and town to preach to street-corner crowds.

All went well until they reached Kansas City. Then Sharp, in an ill-advised moment, tried to address a meeting on the steps of the city hall.

The police ordered them to move away. Sharp refused, shouting that he had been ordered by a divine power to resist any attempt to make him do so.

Guns were drawn and shots flew. Two of Sharp's disciples were killed, and Sharp wounded a policeman.

As a result Sharp was sent to prison for fifteen years.

Mrs. Sharp tried for months to get executive clemency for him. Failing in this, she rented a house across the river, and waited. And when he was released, a year ago, she welcomed him and helped him plan the future anew.

So now the long pilgrimage down the river will begin again. A canvas-covered scow of a houseboat has been made ready.

Sharp and his wife will be accompanied by Mrs. Della Pratt, widow of one of the slain disciples.

The pilgrims support themselves by stopping over so often and hiring out as cotton pickers.

For the rest, they will float idly on down the river, touching little towns here and there and haranguing the villagers once more with "Adam God's" gospel of love and peace.

And this time, the evangelist says, there will be added to the doctrine of non-resistance.

GHASTLY RITES OF VODOO SEEN IN PARIS

Ceremonies Practiced Secretly by Members of Black Tribes

Weird Dance in Moonlight Described by Frenchman Who Saw Strange Doings

Paris, Aug. 21.—Paris, a centre for all foreign groups, cults, superstitions and marked or criminal activities, has also its West Indian voodoo worshippers. Natives of Martinique and Guadeloupe have imported their sinister and covert ceremonial into France, and actually practice it in haunts which they have selected in the city's environs.

The other day Marcel Nadaud, the well-known authority on French agriculture and economy, told in "Le Petit Journal" of a voodoo gathering near Paris which he attended as a favored spectator. He said:

"Some months ago I was crossing the Place Theatre Francaise in company with an American friend. What H. N. H. has not seen between the eleventh and the forty-fifth parallel of latitude is not worth seeing. As to the customs of the blacks of the Caribbean they are no more secret to him than the customs of the stars of Los Angeles."

SECRET WORD GIVEN

"A Martinique woman was standing near us, a fine statue in ebony, out of place under our pale skins. My companion bent over and whispered in her ear a word which made her rush away as if she had been bitten by a serpent."

"What did you say to her?" "Oh, nothing; a little word which she knows at home. The kid without horns. Yes, she is a voodooist, like most of her compatriots. Her war brought their superstitions here. Follow this trail and you will learn something."

"I followed the trail. "H. N. H. introduced me to a Martinique of some importance. He became friendly and promised to take me to the next voodoo ceremony. So one moonlight evening we went to the wood of C—."

"Shadows dancing among the trees. Signals were heard. Couples passed me to the next voodoo ceremony. So one moonlight evening we went to the wood of C—."

"All the transplanted African races were represented. A pure Negro sat next to a quadroon; not far from them was a Congolese woman, holding a whimpering baby in her arms. Welling up from them all was an atmosphere heavy with animality, of morbid and uprooted human beings who had broken all ties with nature and were attracted to their native soil only by the bond of criminal mystery."

"Gradually the agglomeration took shape. A circle formed in the clearing. Two men brought in a sort of cage, which they placed near the centre and put some burning sticks to one side of it."

BEGINNING OF CEREMONY
A song sounded near me. The circle closed in. The blacks now knelt instead of squatting. A tall old man, clothed in a white mantle, beneath which his polished shoes could be seen, stationed himself between the cage and the fire. He stood motionless for some minutes, his white locks in striking contrast with his dusky face. Then he intoned a vague rhythm, interrupted by various bust contortions.

"With arms extended in supplication and heads lifted imploringly, the listeners repeated at intervals the old man's litany."

"It is our high priest, my guide whispered."

"But who are those women who come forward from the circle—four, five six?"

"Our six priestesses. They are the mere folk, as the Haytian say. "Each has a child with her."

"Her oldest son—the kid without horns. Here they are only figurants. But some time they may not be so. Back home it is more serious."

"What do you mean?" "Hush you will see presently."

The priest now uttered strident cries and passionate invocations, in which were mingled the notes of a deep song. Then he turned to the priestesses. They held out to him the little children, whose eyes now rolled with fright.

"The priestesses seemed to implore the high priest to choose among their sons. He selected one boy and placed him before the cage. In the child's arms he put a very small kid, which was bleating. An assistant brought in a tub, already half full of a brownish liquid."

"Rum," my companion murmured.

He was already licking his lips. "There was a last invocation, followed by a series of whistlings. A big serpent came out of the cage. He balanced his neck, now to the right, now to the left, darting out his head. A drum was beaten near him."

"The old man straightened up and brandished a knife over the child's head. I was about to make an outcry. The blade, glittering in the rays from the fire, sank into the kid's throat. The blood dripped in the tub. A deep rattle rose from a hundred anguished breasts."

"The knife descended from the throat to the chest, which it tore open. The priest seized the heart, which he stuck on a long needle and offered to the moon. He threw the liver to the serpent, which slowly swallowed it."

"His majesty the Devil is satisfied," my neighbor chuckled. "The circle broke up and rushed for the bushes. The blacks faces plunged into it and reappeared coated with blood and alcohol. Then they began to dance."

"The High Priest now engaged in a strange operation. From time to time a dancer separated from the circle, drank from the tub and then handed him a photograph, or some piece of linen which had been worn about the heart. When the priest thought that no one would bring him any more such articles, he hastily dug a hole, buried the offending packages, danced on the earth to excite all the latent, savage instincts of the hot countries. Sometimes a dancer fell down exhausted. The others kicked him with their feet, invoking the satan-king, the ancient serpent, who, satiated with food, dancing and cries, no longer extended from his cage anything but his little head, watching with cold eyes the leaps and bounds of the faithful from beyond the seas—the initiates of Goli, the Voodooists."

"And all this happened in May, 1925, less than ten kilometres away from Paris."

RT. REV. H. E. RYLE DIED IN LONDON

Notable Career Ended Yesterday; Dean of Westminster Abbey Since 1911

For Years Was Bishop of Exeter; Later Bishop of Winchester

London, Aug. 21.—The Rt. Rev. Herbert Edward Ryle, D.D., Dean of Westminster since 1911, died here yesterday.

Herbert Edward Ryle was born in London, May 25, 1854, the second son of Bishop Ryle of Liverpool. He was educated at Eton and King's College, Cambridge, where he took his B.A. degree in 1875, having won a number of prizes.

From 1881 till 1884 he was a divinity lecturer in Emmanuel College, Cambridge. From 1882 till 1886 he was a lecturer in King's College, Cambridge.

In 1882 he was ordained a deacon, and was ordained a priest in 1883.

He married Nea, daughter of Maj.-General G. Hewish Adams, late of the Royal Irish Rifles, in 1882. Of the union one son was born.

HEAD OF COLLEGE

Dr. Ryle became Principal of St. David's College, Lampeter, in 1886, continuing in that post till 1888, in which year he became a professorial fellow of King's College, Cambridge. From 1887 till 1889 he was examining chaplain to the Bishop of St. Asaph, occupying a similar post for the Bishop of Ripon in 1889. In 1895 further honor came to him when he was named an honorary canon of the Diocese of Ripon. From 1893 till 1901 he was chaplain to Queen Victoria.

He was Hulsean Professor of Divinity in Cambridge University from 1887 till 1901, and president of Queen's College, Cambridge, from 1896 till 1901. From 1899 till 1902 he acted as Warburton lecturer in Cambridge.

BECAME BISHOP

Dr. Ryle's elevation to the episcopate came in 1901, when he was appointed Bishop of Exeter. In 1903 he was transferred to the see of Winchester. In 1911 he resigned as Bishop of Winchester to become Dean of Westminster Abbey, which post he held till his death.

Among his publications were: "The Canon of the Old Testament," 1892; "The Early Narratives of Genesis," 1892; "Commentary on Ezra and Nehemiah," 1893; "Philo and Holy Scripture," 1895; "On the Church of England," 1904; "On Holy Scripture and Criticism," 1904; "Commentary on Genesis," 1914, and "Life After Death," 1916. He contributed the article on the Apocalypse to the second edition of Smith's Bible Dictionary and wrote contributions to the Cambridge Companion to the Bible, 1893.

DETROIT SHOOTING AFFRAY

Detroit, Aug. 21.—Carson T. Shields, twenty-seven, was shot and fatally wounded yesterday in a dwelling house here which the authorities say was used as a blind pig. Conflicting stories of the shooting led police to take into custody several persons in the place at the time. Among them are Arthur Chapman, held on charges of violating the state prohibition law; Abraham Gault, an entertainer in the place, and Peggy Burns, a customer, who was present when the shooting occurred. Mrs. E. Shields, wife of the dead man, and Shields' brother, Leonard, were detained.

BIGGER RAIL TRAFFIC

Lethbridge, Aug. 21.—That larger earnings during the balance of this year could be anticipated as a result of the 1925 grain crop which he had seen during his tour of the prairies, was the statement made here yesterday by Sir Henry W. Thornton, president of the Canadian National Railways.

INDIAN CONVICTED OF MANSLAUGHTER

Big Alex Found Guilty at Witchcraft Trial in Prince Rupert

Prince Rupert, Aug. 21.—Big Alex, the Liard River Indian, charged with murder in the "witchcraft" case, was found guilty of manslaughter by a jury in the Assize Court here late yesterday. The jury deliberated one hour and five minutes. Sentence was not pronounced.

The Indian woman, Edie, is to be put on trial to-day on a murder charge.

Edie, the squaw, concluding her evidence at the Big Alex trial, reiterated she had only acted under orders from Alex in the up-moosin of a devil. For three days Moccasins sat in the snow, expiring only when practically frozen solid. The temperature during the three days went as low as forty below zero. That was in March, 1923.

Fred Allen, a Liard River fur trader, who has lived in that region since 1913, described the Indians of the district as nomads who believed in what they term "Old Man of the Woods," who, they think, has power to implant a witch in any one he chooses. Big Alex, he said, was convinced Moccasins was possessed of a witch, thereby causing others of the tribe to become ill. In Allen's judgment, any illness was caused by a huge consumption of moose meat. Even nursing babies were given all the meat they could swallow.

Alex, after the death of Moccasins, declared he felt better. Allen said. Once, when Alex was ill, he had hanged four dogs, one a day, saying afterwards he had been cured.

The three Loeb brothers—Jimmy, Dan and Clem—were discharged yesterday, as the prosecution was unable to introduce any evidence connecting them with the murder of Moccasins.

CANADA'S OUTPUT WAS $3,051, 000, 000

Commodities Manufactured in Year 1923 Amounted to That Total

Ottawa, Aug. 21.—Canada produced a net value of $3,051,000,000 in commodities in one year, according to a report just issued by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics as estimated on the basis of statistics compiled by its various branches. This value was produced by approximately two-thirds of the gainfully employed persons in Canada, those engaged in the various kinds of production, defined according to the usual acceptance of the term adopted, including agriculture, forestry, fisheries, trapping, mining and manufacturing. The value of $3,051,000,000, which covered 1923, represented an increase of 13 per cent over the previous year. Ontario contributed 29.7 per cent of the Canadian total. Quebec held second place, with 23.5 per cent. British Columbia and Manitoba follow in the order given.

Locomotives Fell Into McLeod River

Edmonton, Aug. 21.—Two engines left the rails and fell into the McLeod River near Shaw, ten miles south of Coal Spur on the Alberta coal branch, according to word received here. One of the engines was completely submerged. Heavy rains have caused the McLeod River to reach a record height and the railway track was undermined by the strong flow of the river. Firemen Moyes and Dickout were slightly scalded.

PRAIRIE PROVINCES MAKE REQUESTS FOR LOWER RAIL RATES

Statements Filed With Federal Board by Alberta and Saskatchewan

Ask Removal of Rates Discriminating Against British Columbia Coast

Ottawa, Aug. 21.—Discrimination against Alberta in the existing freight rates of railways is charged in a submission of the Government of the province filed with the Board of Railway Commissioners.

The Saskatchewan Government has also submitted a memorandum declaring freight rates in Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Alberta are higher than in the East and that they should be reduced and brought to a parity with the eastern rates.

RATES ON GRAIN

Both Governments protest against the difference in rates on grain moving eastward under the Cross's Rate schedule of rates and on grain moving westward to the British Columbia coast.

"These rates should be put on the same basis as the rates which are now in force from Edmonton, Calgary and other Alberta points to Port William and Port Arthur for similar mileage," states the Alberta submission. "The Saskatchewan submission declares that 'it is only just and reasonable' that similar rates should prevail on grain and flour moving east or west."

ALBERTA AT PEAK

The statement of the Alberta Government is a lengthy one. It says Alberta suffers unfair treatment under the existing rate structure of Canada, and states the various commodity tariffs to the Pacific coast ports operate adversely against Alberta, so as to place that province at the peak of the existing freight tariff scale.

The removal of the mountain scale differential against shipments from Alberta to Pacific coast points is urged. Such removal would encourage the movement of traffic originating in Alberta to those ports. It is stated. On inbound shipments the prairie and mountain scale differential in the existing rate structure are out of line with the present transportation and traffic conditions and unduly discriminate against Alberta. It is decided.

FALL INQUIRY URGED

The Alberta Government asks that the present existing special freight tariffs, generally known as the transcontinental rates, be now examined in detail and revised. It requests removal of the "unjust discrimination" existing in respect of the movement of grain and flour westbound as compared with the eastbound movement. In order to encourage agriculture in Alberta, it suggests the rate of feed grain westbound to British Columbia be made sufficiently low to enable the Alberta farmer to supply the British Columbia market and lower rates on butter, eggs and poultry for export from both Atlantic and Pacific ports is requested. Special commodity rates on fresh, frozen and cured meats, hides, tallow and fertilizer from Alberta to Toronto, Montreal, the British Columbia ports, Seattle and Portland are requested.

MEAT DISCUSSION IN GREAT BRITAIN

London, Aug. 21.—The meat question—whether British consumers shall be supplied with beef from Argentina or from the Dominions of the Empire—has been thrown into renewed prominence by the press discussion of the two reports published by the Imperial Economic Committee, the first on August 10 and the second on Wednesday last, advising study of the possibility of quicker transportation to bring Canadian, Australian and New Zealand beef to the British market.

The committee's recommendations have involved the British Government in a partial dilemma owing to the necessity of protecting, as far as possible, the interests of British stock-raisers.

The committee has come into conflict with a section of the members of Parliament who are opposed to any course likely to lure British farmers, by its recommendation in favor of removal of all embargoes on cattle shipped from the Dominions to Britain.

At present Canadian livestock is admitted, but not Australian or South African, and this is causing bitterness.

TO PAY FIRE COST

Roseland, Aug. 21.—At a meeting here of Oregon and Washington forest officials with representatives of the British Columbia forest branch yesterday, the Americans agreed to bear the whole cost of fighting the recent Mount Sophia fire, in which the British Columbia men co-operated, also assisting in holding the line South of the boundary.

MORE PLEBISCITES

WHEN THE BEER plebiscite legislation was before the House it was vigorously opposed by The Times on the grounds that there was no general demand for it, it would open the way to the restoration of many objectionable features of the bar, it would conflict with the principle of government control of the sale of liquor, it would be followed by demands for further deviation from that principle until the entire system would collapse, and it would be detrimental to business in general.

Developments following the adoption of that legislation in many respects have justified the attitude this newspaper took at that time. Now comes another in the form of opportunity for additional plebiscites in regard to the sale of beer, obviously to meet the cases of those constituencies which voted against beer halls, but which now are suspected of having changed their minds. Under the regulations just announced any constituency which presents a petition signed by forty per cent. of voters on the 1925 list can have a plebiscite. After the revision in 1926, a petition signed by thirty-five per cent. of the voters will be sufficient.

In some constituencies, especially those in which there was a strong adverse vote in the last plebiscite, it may be difficult to get forty per cent. of the registered voters to put their names to a petition for another test, but in those in which the vote was close, particularly in the smaller constituencies, the problem would be easier.

We gather from the Attorney-General's statement yesterday that he considers the forty per cent. requirement will prevent the submission of many petitions. He may be correct in this view, but we suggest that this could be definitely and certainly insured by keeping the door closed to all plebiscites. Opening that door, even to a partial extent, means the widening of the breach which has been made in the system of government control of the sale of liquor in this Province, and it will not be long before the entire system for which the public originally voted will have disappeared for all practical purposes.

OUR PRODUCTS GO TO THE UNITED STATES IN SPITE OF TARIFFS

THE MONETARY TIMES is evidently impressed with the fact that in spite of the tariff barriers erected by the United States against Canadian goods the exports from this country continue to increase. It says emphatically that the real truth is that the duties, in a great many instances, have fallen short of their objective. In this connection this important financial journal points out that our neighbor has recently raised the duty on thirty-two out of forty-one of the principal commodities which this Dominion is desirous of marketing in the United States. Yet the shipments of Canadian products continue to increase.

Evidence of substantial gains already made can be found in the monthly digests compiled by the Bureau of Statistics at Ottawa. For the twelve months ending last June we sold goods to the republic at a value of $429,275,000 and imported from that country goods worth $517,680,000. These figures reveal an increase in exports of $3,390,000 and a decrease in imports of $53,187,000—the evening-up process which has reduced an adverse balance of trade of $300,000,000 in 1921 to a little over $80,000,000 at the end of last month.

Many instances are shown by The Monetary Times in support of its contention that Canada has been forging ahead in the business of marketing her products in the United States in spite of the tariff walls which have been erected by that country. This fact is well borne out in the demand which has developed for Canadian bacon. In 1921, when all-bacon entered the United States free, the shipments were only a little over 1,000 hundredweight, while in the nine months ended June, 1925, they amounted to 10,200 hundredweight, despite a duty of two cents per pound. In 1901 there was only a duty of 2½ cents per pound on Canadian butter, and in that year the imports amounted to 1,581,000 pounds, but in the recent fiscal year, with a duty of eight cents per pound, the shipments of Canadian butter to the United States totalled 2,895,000 pounds.

Buckwheat was going into the United States free in 1921; the shipments in that year were only a little over 240,000 bushels, as against nearly 600,000 bushels in the last fiscal year, with a duty of ten cents per bushel. Another outstanding example is the foothold which Canadian cream has gained in the markets of the republic in spite of a determined effort to protect the farmers of that country. The exports in 1921, which were duty-free, were only a little over 800,000 gallons, whereas in the last fiscal year, with an import duty of 20 cents a gallon, the exports amounted to 2,278,000 gallons. Milk was also entering the United States free in 1921, and in that year the shipments only amounted to a little more than 800,000 gallons, while in the fiscal year ended June, 1925, they totalled 2,332,000 gallons in spite of a tax of 2½ cents a gallon. The import levied against Canadian flaxseed in 1921 was only twenty cents a bushel. In that year the exports to the United States totalled only 1,800,000 bushels compared with 4,313,000 bushels, with a duty of 40 cents a bushel, in the last fiscal year.

Other Canadian commodities which have continued to increase in favor with American importers in the face of increasing duties are fresh berries, peas, bran, shorts and middlings, grass seed, turnips, hay and maple sugar.

"SAVE OUR SIMON"

ALTHOUGH NO DECISION has been reached at Ottawa regarding a Dominion election this year, local Conservatives already have begun to show symptoms of alarm over the prospects of Dr. Tolmie in the campaign which eventually must take place. For example, The Colonist this morning contains an inverted S.O.S. "SAVE OUR SIMON"—signal in the form of a suggestion in its news columns that the Doctor be returned by acclamation.

Although, as every newspaper is aware, this device has been worn threadbare, its use in the present instance is rather interesting. It was not considered necessary in the general election of 1921 or in any of the other elections in which Dr. Tolmie was a candidate, and before he bound himself to the chariot driven by Mr. Meighen on the big 'uns of the East. Obviously the Doctor's friends realize that many electors in Victoria do not care to remain in the cold shades of opposition both here and at Ottawa, and that it would be better to have the Dominion Government behind the development of this port than to rely upon the opponents of that Government led by the melancholy Mr. Meighen. Hence, the fear of a contest.

POOR MR. STEVENS

IT IS TO BE NOTED THAT Mr. H. H. Stevens, the Federal member for Vancouver Centre, has not repeated the narrative about merchants leaving his own constituency for Seattle because of taxation conditions which he said had been created by the policies of the King Government. Since he concluded his sessional duties at Ottawa, in fact, his observations concerning economic affairs in British Columbia have been almost colorless. There is good reason for this. The Vancouver newspapers for months have been announcing substantial business expansion and bank clearings have shown an improvement over last year practically every week. Nor would it be a very simple matter for Mr. Stevens to cry, blue ruin, especially local blue ruin, in the face of record-shattering building activities. And right under the report of Mr. Stevens' speech at White Rock the other night The Vancouver Province records the fact that building permits in South Vancouver are now eclipsing all previous records.

But what did Mr. Stevens mean when he told that audience that "the good financial business done with Great Britain was nullified by the business transactions with the United States, fifty per cent. of Canada's business being done with that country?" The member for Vancouver Centre apparently disfers from his leader, since he seems pleased with Canada's interchange with Great Britain, made possible only by the Liberal policy of giving a preference to British goods—a privilege which Mr. Meighen would abolish if he could have his way. And what is the complaint about Canada's trade with the United States, which Mr. Stevens says nullifies the trade intercourse with Britain? Does Mr. Stevens think it good business to drop our commercial relations with our neighbor by increasing the tariff? Would he redress that loss by increasing the British preference, or would he then follow his leader and make trading between Britain and Canada and between this country and the United States still more difficult—a course which would reduce this Dominion to something like a village market? Verily do the apostles of gloom employ some extraordinary arguments in an effort to convince an intelligent public that things are not what they are but what Mr. Meighen says they are.

FOR FAIR PLAY

To the Editor:—I saw in your paper yesterday a "report" of a lady of high standing with credentials being fined $50 for prophecy. I would like to know why a certain church here is allowed to prophesy and all the palmist and other spiritualists in this city allowed to practice. Where does justice come in? I learn that Mrs. Rev. Dr. Jordan will leave the city as soon as she can sell her property and go where she can practice for she is true to her religion. I am sure that would like to see fair play and justice in this city.

PRISON RECORD IS NEEDED FOR THIS COLLEGE

100,000 Ex-Convicts Already Placed in Jobs Through Dudding Organization

Washington, D.C., Aug. 21.—A college for ex-convicts, started by an ex-convict, is being founded here. It is the Leitch-Watts Memorial University—possibly the strangest educational institution in the world. Its entrance requirement is a prison record.

Its founder and president is Dr. Earl R. Dudding, who served time in the West Virginia State Penitentiary. Fourteen years ago Dudding was a prosperous merchant in Huntington, W. Va. Then he became involved with his uncle in a controversy over some property.

They quarreled—and Dudding shot his uncle to death. He pleaded self-defence, but was sentenced to five years in Moundsville.

After serving four years he was released—only to find his earnings paid over to his wife. His two daughters ostracized by their friends, and his life apparently wrecked.

Then it occurred to him that thousands of other ex-convicts must be in the same plight. He decided to help them make good. With a borrowed $114,514, he started in, Miss Leitch-Watts, one of his few remaining friends, offered to help.

Dudding and Miss Watts started the Prisoners' Relief Society and wrote letters to 10,000 businessmen, asking if they would take one or more convicts into their employ.

They received 10,000 favorable replies—from Daniel Willard, president of the B. & O. Railroad.

Some time later Miss Watts died, but the Prisoners' Relief gradually became a success.

It persuaded more and more employers to put men and women with prison records on their pay rolls. Contributions started coming in from all parts of the country.

So far, it has helped 100,000 ex-convicts find jobs. Dudding declares that ninety per cent. of these have made good.

At first the society's scope was limited to Western Canada, but Dudding later moved to Washington and made it a national affair.

NEED FOR TRAINED MEN

Then he encountered another difficulty. In an age of specialization, it was extremely hard to place untrained men—and thousands of the men and women he was trying to assist lacked both business and mechanical training.

This presented the idea of an ex-convict college.

He signed up Dr. T. Marcellus Marshall, first president of Marshall College, as chancellor. Next he started the first branch of his unique university—a school for stenographers—in the big brick house where he lives and works.

"The girls taking this course," he said, "are helping me send out information and pleas for assistance. I want to teach the elementary subjects and all possible trades."

"It is impossible to learn a trade while in prison. If there were nothing else to do, it would be a waste of time. But when a man has spent the day wheeling 1,200 pounds of iron, he can't get much out of an hour's schooling in the evening."

I knew one convict who went to the prison school every night for thirty-two years and could not read. He was a white man, but when he heard of his own living in a six-months' course.

"In our university here it is different. We can teach a man to earn his own living in a six-months' course."

"And when the university is well established here, we plan to start branches in other cities throughout the country."

RINGS SHOW WEATHER

Scientists of the Field Museum of Natural History expect to learn why the weather changes in the vicinity of 200 years or more in the vicinity of oak and willow stands. It has been found that trees of various kinds register that trees of various kinds register a record of the seasons, because the wood that grew in the summer and that which grew in the spring can be distinguished in the annual rings. By these comparisons, deductions as to the amount of rainfall and sunshine that the trees received can be made.

The microscope is expected to disclose what part of the wood was formed during the summer and dry years, and the structure of the little sap tubes differs according to these conditions. Experiments and observations also have shown that the side opposite to the direction of the winds. For instance, there are trees in the heart of the forest whose trunk is close to the bark on the side from which the prevailing winds blow.

SOUND WAVES FROM BRAIN BY RADIO

Paris, Aug. 21.—Sound waves from a human brain have been picked up by a radio receiver on a four-to-ten metre wave length.

The experiment is described by Professor Ferdinand Cassanelli, head of the department of neurology and psychiatry of the University of Milan, in an article prepared for the Revue de la Revue de Metaphysique and reviewed by Le Matin.

A result Prof. Cassanelli sees the transmission of sound waves from one brain to another. He says he operated with highly excitable persons of those suffering from nervous diseases, as well as the medium, Signora Maggi. The patients were shut up in a perfectly insulated cabinet. The sounds he heard through the receiver ranged from signals akin to ordinary wireless signals, to whistling and soft violin or cello notes.

Professor Cassanelli says he is led to believe the waves sent out from the brain of one person under certain conditions might be picked up by the brain of another person under similar nervous mental or hypnotic stress.

GAS CONSUMERS GET CONCESSIONS FROM COMPANY

B.C.E.R. Announce Novel Plan of Loaning Stoves and Heaters

Announcement is made by the B.C. Electric Railway Company of a novel plan whereby householders, whose premises are served by the company's gas mains will be provided with a gas range and a gas water heater on the free loan plan. The company will also defray the cost of installation of these appliances.

In an interview A. T. Goward, vice-president of the company made the following statement with regard to this new policy being adopted by the company.

"We have in Victoria a large and very effective gas manufacturing plant. Extensive additions to this plant have recently been completed that will give us ample gas storage facilities to cope with the peak load demands sometimes made during the winter months, as well as other times, and still have a wide margin of capacity."

"This means that our plant under normal or every day conditions is not working at anything like capacity or on a really efficient basis. In order that we may be able to remedy this state of affairs to some extent, as well as bring the advantages of gas service within the reach of everybody, we have decided to install a large number of gas ranges and water heaters, possibly as many as 3,000, under what is known as the free loan plan."

"Householders who are on our gas mains and who wish to take advantage of this plan can have a gas range and water heater, or a gas range only, placed in their home and connected up ready for use without expending a cent. The only stipulation is that a reasonable minimum of gas shall be consumed each month. In this way we are not only adopting a plan that we hope will make a greater demand upon our gas manufacturing plant and so make it possible to operate it on a more efficient basis than has been possible hitherto, but we are placing before the public a very generous and straightforward offer that will bring the comfort, convenience and labor-saving features of gas fuel for cooking and water heating within the reach of practically everybody."

"The type of appliances being installed by the Gas Company under this free loan plan is on display in the windows and showrooms of the company's premises on Douglas Street and on Langley Street."

No entrance fee will be charged for exhibits, which must be left at the church between 1 and 5 o'clock the day of the fair. There will be the usual side shows and attractions, and a most unusual feature in the form of a fashion display. The parade will commence immediately after the prizes for exhibits are awarded.

Five dollars worth of radio photographic, fretsaw paint or any other material for your favorite hobby is offered free in the latest competition starting to-morrow on The Times' children page. There are other prizes too.

GAS IN THE STOMACH IS DANGEROUS

Recommends Daily Use of Magnesia to Overcome Trouble Caused by Fermenting Food and Acid Indigestion

Gas and wind in the stomach, accompanied by that full, bloated feeling after eating, are almost certain evidence of the presence of excessive hydrochloric acid in the stomach, creating so-called "acid indigestion."

Acid stomachs are dangerous because too much acid irritates the delicate lining of the stomach, often leading to gastritis accompanied by serious stomach ulcers. Food ferments and causes the distending gas which distends the stomach and hampers the normal functions of the vital internal organs, often affecting the heart.

It is the worst of folly to neglect such a serious condition or to treat with ordinary digestive aids which have no neutralizing effect on the stomach acids. Instead get from any drug store a few ounces of Bilexated Magnesia and take a teaspoonful in a quarter glass of water right after each meal. This will drive the gas, wind and bloated feeling out of the body, sweeten the stomach, neutralize the excess acid and prevent its formation and there is no sourness or pain. Bilexated Magnesia is not a laxative or a cathartic, it is a natural and harmless form—never liquid or milk—is harmless to the stomach, inexpensive to take and the best of all remedies for all stomach purposes. It is used by thousands of people who enjoy their meals with no more fear of indigestion.

HOMES IN THE AIR PROPOSED TO SOLVE PARIS SHORTAGE

Viennese Architect Suggests Elevated Structures About Outskirts of City

Paris, Aug. 21.—The housing problem of Paris has brought forth a suggestion from a Viennese architect, Frederick Kiesler, which, without seeming very practical to the lay mind, has at least the advantage of being original. It is to build hotels about the outskirts of the city on an aerial superstructure in such a way that they will not interfere with the cultivation of the land. In other words, if one could imagine a network of elevated structures circling Paris with suburban cottages in place of tracks, one would have some idea of M. Kiesler's scheme.

On the theoretical side the architect explains that the tendency of the age is more and more to take to the air and that we might as well live in the air as ride in the air. Further, he points out that modern means of conveyance have annihilated space, so that the problem of distance virtually exists no longer, and elevators would make it more than easy to mount to the new aerial homes.

In an interview in one of the Paris papers the architect admitted that he was not yet sure just how these houses could be constructed, but expressed confidence that, once the idea was adopted, modern ingenuity would find the means to carry it out. For the moment he preferred to stress the

INVITE MODISTES
TO SEE CORINNE'S
TWENTY-TWO GOWNS

Corinne Griffith is especially popular with women and therefore affords good opportunity for store tie-ups.

One of the best of such tie-ups would be with stores selling women's wear. Corinne wears twenty-two gowns in "Love's Wilderness"—costumes that were designed for her by the leading modistes of Paris and New York.

It is suggested that you arrange a pre-view and invite the modistes and other dealers in women's wear in your city to send their designers. Arrange with them to make copies of Corinne's gowns for window display.

Such displays could be hooked up with your showing of the picture through cards, posters, Corinne's photograph, or stills of the photograph, and the announcement that these are reproductions of the new styles worn by Corinne Griffith in her latest picture, "Love's Wilderness," now at the Coliseum.

ALICE JOYCE
MAKES DEBUT
IN PARAMOUNT

Though her motion picture career started in the early days of the film industry, and her popularity has continued through all of the rapid changes that marked its progress, Alice Joyce is one of the few prominent screen players who had never appeared in a Paramount picture until "The Little French Girl," now at the Dominion Theatre, which Herbert Brenon produced.

Miss Joyce has the role of "Madame de Verrier," the mother of the little French girl in the film version of Anne Douglas Sedgwick's popular novel, and is co-starring with Mary Brian, Neil Hamilton and Esther Raston.

To her studio associates and her friends Miss Joyce is a marvel of girlish slenderness and youth which makes it difficult to realize that she is the mother of two children, one six years old and the other three.

As a fashionable Parisienne in this Paramount production, Miss Joyce wears a variety of smart costumes that are destined to set the mode for the coming season. She also displays the latest vogue in French bobs, which is worn close-cropped at the back and follows closely the shape of the head, with only three large waves to relieve the severity of the outline.

Since her appearance in "The Green Goddess" about two years ago,
Miss Joyce has played in "Daddy's Gone a-Hunting," "White Man" and
"The Passionate Adventure," the last named made in England last Summer.

"The Little French Girl" is a screen version of the "best-seller" novel of the same name by Anne Douglas Sedgwick which set the world of literature to talking.

Mario Majeroni, Paul Doucet, Julia
Hurley, Jane Jennings and Anthony Jowitt, a new "find" appear, among others, in the supporting cast.

POWERFUL ARCS WERE USED FOR NIGHT ACTION

Attracted by the huge lights which illuminated the sky from sundown to dawn, hundreds of residents of the San Fernando valley made the long and difficult trip into the rocky fastnesses where George Fitzmaurice recently filmed an important episode of "His Supreme Moment," in which Blanche Sweet and Ronald Colman
are featured.

Preferring real scenery to the studio product, Fitzmaurice selected the rock plateau above Chatsworth, Cal., known as the "Little Garden of the Gods" because of its striking resemblance to the famous Colorado scenic point, as the locale for a spectacular sequence of scenes in which Blanche Sweet and Ronald Colman
stage a fierce fight with an attacking mob of South American miners, which ends in the burning of the mine buildings. Powerful arcs were used for the night action, and the reflection of the illumination on the sky could be seen for miles around.

The picture is at the Capitol Theatre to-day.

STRONG ACTION
IN CARTER'S GREAT
DRAMA "TORNADO"

Big in its dramatic values, smashing in its conception of the spectacular, "The Tornado," Universal Jewel starring House Peters, opened yesterday in the Columbia Theatre.

The picture is fine in entertainment in many ways, but probably its biggest appeal lies in the stupendous scenes depicting the fury of nature as emphasized in the relentless powers of storm and flood.

There are a number of these big scenes. The most thrilling and daring in its conception are those resulting from a big log jam, which dams up a storm-stream river until the flood waters threaten to sweep away a little settlement. At the same time there is an assault by hurricane, a veritable tornado that tears loose.

The air is full of debris; the other the building is dashed to pieces, which collapses just as a train is crossing, the whole being plunged into the river where the passengers and crew struggle for their lives.

Peters play the role of a man who seeks by the terrific endeavor consequent upon a life in the log-jamming camps to deaden the heart pain caused by what he believes to have been the infidelity of the woman who had promised to be his wife when he returned from the Great War. A stern, relentless, grim
as "The Tornado."

Ruth Clifford plays the part of the woman, and Richard Tucker plays her husband, who it develops, was the false friend who came back from France and told the woman the man she had promised to marry was dead. The couple come to the little settlement where the "Tornado" drags out his existence and there meet.

JAZZ VERSION OF
UNCLE TOM'S CABIN
FOR ENGLISH STAGE

London, Aug. 21.—The spectacle of old Uncle Tom, who in other days
guilted under the lash of Simon Legree, doing the Charleston across the stage to the tune of "Then Come Pickin' Blues," is a possibility in the newest edition of Uncle Tom's Cabin, a musical comedy being prepared for English theatregoers.

While few details are available,
those few are plenty, as one newspaper says. They include a dramatic shoot-out of the villainous Legree by Tom himself, elimination of Eliza and the famous bounds and ice cake scene, introduction of a new comedy character named Jim Crow, and instead of the pathetic death of the old slave, his triumphant final appearance with a big wedding cake at the marriage of Lucy Rivers.

About the only spot to those who want a bit of pathos will be the death of Little Eva. So far as is known, she will die and disappear into the scene heaven at the end of a rope as she has done for generations.

BIRDS IN FINEST
SHOW AT WILLOWS
ALL RAISED IN B.C.

Prize List Changes Attract
Greatest Display of Popular Breeds Ever Known

Seven hundred Victoria district birds, together with less than one hundred entries from Vancouver, comprise the greatest poultry show gathered at any exhibition ever held at the Willows.

Changes in the prize list, designed to foster a large local entry of the popular breeds, have worked out more advantageously than the most optimistic members of the poultry executive of the Fair had hoped.

Elimination of awards for specities with small entries has permitted the Agricultural Association to offer as many as ten awards in one class, with the first prize money in some cases as high as ten dollars.

Mix it Fresh for Every MealHave you these RECIPES?

ECONOMICAL MAYONNAISE

Take 4 tablespoons olive oil, 4 tablespoons fresh cream, 2 tablespoons vinegar, 1 teaspoonful Colman's D.S.P. Mustard, sufficient salt and pepper to suit taste. Mix and beat quickly, the mixture will whiten in a few minutes, having the appearance of fine whipped cream, and the fineness of the best mayonnaise, besides having the advantage of requiring no eggs, never coagulating and being easily and quickly made.

HAM, TONGUE OR CHICKEN SANDWICHES

1 cup very finely chopped cold ham, tongue or chicken, 1 1/2 teaspoonful Colman's D.S.P. Mustard, 1 dessertspoonful melted butter.

Some onion juice, if agreeable, a little red tomato catsup, celery, salt, pepper to taste. Spread this on buttered slices of bread.

That's the only way to get the full flavour, and what is more important, the full benefit of mustard. Mix a little fresh for every meal—and mix it right!—use only cold water.

It is cold water alone that brings out the essential oils that make dry mustard one of the finest of all appetizers and one of the best of all aids to digestion.

COLMAN'S MUSTARD mixed fresh with cold water at each meal, adds savour and zest to every food with which it is used—makes the dish infinitely more appetizing.

Moreover, mustard stimulates the action of the salivary glands and promotes the flow of the gastric juices in the stomach, thus ensuring quick and easy digestion.

Serve COLMAN'S MUSTARD with every meal. Mix it fresh, and remember—cold water only and always.

NEW YORK ROTARY LEADER ANSWERS SINCLAIR LEWIS

C. E. Keck Says Writer Not Justified in His Remarks About Rotarians

New York, Aug. 21.—Rotarians are striking back at Sinclair Lewis, who in "Main Street," "Babbitt" and other works has indicated that a Rotary Club is a "bunch of great big, bumptious, small town boosters," and worse.

"I'm going to take a fall out of Lewis," Charles E. Keck, president of the New York Rotary Club, said yesterday over the radio. "He's done for it. He's just a bit off his trolley."

"Lewis is a writer, who, having written two or three books that resemble some sort of moving picture without a plot, thinks he knows everything in the world. Mr. Lewis, H. L. Mencken and some other writers who don't take into account the actual facts are so darned clever they can settle any question off-hand."

"If Lewis were a big enough man to tell the story straight, it would be all right. But he fixes up a little town of Zenith, or whatever you call it, and tells everybody a Rotary Club is a bunch of great big, bumptious, small town boosters."

TWO RAILROAD MEN KILLED IN CRASH

Fifteen Passengers Seriously Injured in Collision in Colorado

Salida, Colo., Aug. 21.—Two trainmen lost their lives, fifteen passengers were seriously injured, ten now being in a hospital here, and seventy-five others are nursing out of bed, as a result of a head-on collision between two tourist-laden Denver and Rio Grande western railroad trains near the little Mountain Station at Granite, Colo., forty miles from Salida, late yesterday.

Responsibility for the wreck was laid by railroad officials on failure of a telegraph operator to deliver an order to the eastbound train to stop at Granite. The train, "Panoramic Special," No. 7 and No. 8, which run on a daylight schedule between Denver and Salt Lake City for the benefit of tourists, and which were carrying after No. 8, the eastbound train, had failed to receive the stop order, officials declared.

Steel coaches prevented wholesale loss of life.

Aran Island Irishmen Are in Needy State Now

Galway, Ireland, Aug. 21.—The fishermen of the Aran Islands are in a grave plight, General Mulcahy's investigating committee, sitting here, was told by Rev. Father Walsh, the parish priest of the islands.

During the last year, Father Walsh said, from 50 to 100 of his parishioners had left for Canada and the United States, and if the exodus of boys continued at the present rate there would soon be an end to the fisheries.

There was also a number of people insufficiently supplied with food who would be on the verge of starvation before Christmas if the fishing during the Fall was not more successful than in recent years.

The Aran Islands are at the entrance of Galway Bay. The inhabitants depend mainly on the fisheries and partly on kelp burning.

LIGHTHOUSE OF THE DEAD IS UNVEILED

French Premier Dedicates Striking Memorial Amidst 30,000 Graves

Chasing its rays over twenty miles of battlefields, the "Lighthouse of the Dead," one of the most striking and impressive of monuments of the Great War, was inaugurated by M. Painleve, the French Premier, on the bloodstained heights of Notre Dame de Lorette.

Lorette, Vimy Ridge, and the Labyrinth were the key positions of the Artois front, where France and Britain and her Dominion lost thousands of their best and bravest.

France has erected, as a lasting memorial to those who fell at Notre Dame de Lorette, a lighthouse tower 100 feet high, which stands in the centre of a field of wooden crosses.

In unveiling the monument in the presence of a great assembly of representatives of all parts of France, M. Painleve paid a touching tribute to the thousands of British and Dominion soldiers who had stood their blood on the same field as their French comrades. He expressed the hope that the beams of the lighthouse of the Dead would not only keep alive the memory of the fallen, but also would serve as a beacon of fraternity among the living.

The tower, according to a Reuters' Paris message, stands above an ossuary containing the remains of some 20,000 men who were never identified. It rises in the midst of a cemetery in which there are 30,000 graves.

LEADERS IN ORIENT EXPRESS DESIRE FOR PEACE ON THE PACIFIC

JAPAN NOT WARLIKE

"Japan is not warlike in the slightest," the country is fearfully poor, and is valiantly trying to overcome the set-back caused by the devastating earthquake in Yokohama and Tokio."

"Japan's only thought, I am convinced, is to make her position in the Far East impregnable."

BOLSHEVIST DANGER

"There is one danger to peace in the Far East, however, and that is Bolshevist propaganda."

"There is no doubt that the Russian Soviet is busily engaged in adding fuel to the flames in China."

"The Reds are exploiting the Chinese against the Powers, and the secret and insidious propaganda is reflected to a large extent in China's present unrest."

"Money is being lavishly spent by Red emissaries in China, and the worst work of the Soviet ambassador Karakhan following his arrival at Peking was to circulate large sums of money among the Chinese coolies."

"Japan is closely watching the activities of the Soviet in the Orient, Mr. Bell states, but he is of the opinion that Japan will not take the aggressive unless the Red government threatens her position in the Far East."

"Personally," concluded Mr. Bell, "I do not think there will ever be a war between Japan and Soviet Russia, because the Reds are not seeking conquest by arms, but by propaganda."

"Japan was threatened to the extent of another power making her position in the Far East untenable, she would undoubtedly fight."

"There are some men of influence in the Orient who fear a conflict between Japan and Soviet Russia, but it is my conviction that Russia is far too stupid to force a war with the country which, twenty years ago, humbled the power of the Czarist regime."

Following his return to Chicago, Mr. Bell will write a series of interviews which he has secured from prominent statesmen of the countries of the Far East.

He learned through the agency of the Times of the death on Wednesday night of Victor F. Lawson, editor and publisher of The Chicago Daily News.

The news came as a shock to Mr. Bell, who, until his arrival here, was unaware of the demise of his chief.

Mr. Bell was associated with the late Mr. Lawson for thirty-five years.

MADISON REVEALED BY HEAVY FOGS ON ENTERING STRAITS

Silks, Furs and Tea Main Feature of Average Cargo For U.S. Points

With an average shipment of silk, tea and raw fur the Admiral Oriental liner President Madison docked at 7.30 this morning from the Orient after a smooth passage featured by considerable fog. Capt. J. F. Smith brought his ship up the Straits under slow bell, feeling his way through heavy fog.

The President Madison cleared from Yokohama on August 11, and had 90 saloon and 100 steerage passengers on board. She put off 18 tons cargo here, including forty-six bags of mail for Canadian distribution.

In her cargo holds were 2,255 bales of raw silk, forty-two bales of goods, a fair shipment of raw fur, including mink, martens, rabbit and squirrel from the Kamchatka coast, and a large shipment of tea.

For Victoria she carried firecrackers, provisions, dried eggs, camphor, sugar, tea, silk, gunnies, fly bulbs, lacquer, porcelain, toys, brushes, cocoanut oil and general shipments of Oriental merchandise.

Notable in her saloon list was a party of journalists returning from Oriental tours in the interests of British and American journals. Edward Price Bell, foreign correspondent for The Chicago Daily News joined the Madison at Manila.

Carl J. Ketchum, former correspondent for The London Daily News, and at one time associated with The Vancouver Daily Province, is returning from a tour of the Orient.

Bishop P. R. Graves, of the Episcopal Mission at Shanghai, is on a tour of the Orient after thirty-three years' residence in the Orient.

Innocentio Molde, otherwise known as "Clever Soncio," is a fly-weight champion pugilist of the Philippines on his way to New York, looking for matches. Two passengers debarked for the saloon list here, Isaac Chalmers and Achilles Hirsch, both on pleasure trips.

The President Madison cleared for Seattle about 11 a.m.

R.M.S. NIAGARA MAKES PORT AFTER SMOOTH PASSAGE

Light Cargo Follows Omission of Sydney Call

Inbound from the Antipodes after a fine passage, ending, however, in heavy fog, the R.M.S. Niagara docked shortly after 8 a.m. today, with a large saloon list and a light cargo of general merchandise for Mainland discharge. Close on 300 passengers thronged her decks.

Capt. A. C. Showman reported a smooth passage, with heavy fog off the coast and on the way up the Straits.

The Niagara and the President Madison rounded the Race within a few minutes of each other, and made quarantine at the same time. The President Madison, standing up first after practice, went alongside the Rithet piers. The Niagara, following a few minutes later, docked at the Okefenoke Point terminals of Canadian National.

The Niagara had thirty-six tons for Victoria and 200 tons for Vancouver discharge. Some 300 bags of mail were put ashore here. On this run in the Niagara did not call at Sydney, and so her cargo offerings were lighter than is usually the case.

A large list of passengers enjoyed the smooth passage, which was with out incident save for the heavy fog met when nearing this coast. The Niagara clearly shortly before noon for Vancouver.

Board was one deportee from Australia who will be put ashore at Vancouver.

DESIGNED CAPITAL

Sir Hugh Keeling and Lady Keeling are en route to London from Victoria after a business tour in which Sir Timothy inspected the cable stations of Australia and New Zealand and the Fiji terminal of the new cable to Bantock Creek for the Pacific cable board.

The new link in the trans-Pacific cable to Australia will be completed in 1926, stated Sir Timothy to The Times on board this morning. Construction is now definitely under way on the link between Fiji and Bantock Creek and when this important strip is completed it will treble the service now in effect, in speed and efficiency, he stated.

Sir Timothy and Lady Keeling have been four months on their trip which took them in turn to all parts of Australia and New Zealand and the midway islands of the cable chain. They will stop at Vancouver for a few days before routing East of the Canadian lines.

CHINESE BARRING OF BRITISH VESSELS IS TERMED PIRACY

London, Aug. 21.—The new Chinese coastal regulations discriminating against British and Japanese shipping as reported from Canton Wednesday are not only engaging the close attention of the British Government, but have raised a remarkable stir in the press.

The regulations framed by the Canton authorities are:

First—Steamships of any nationality except British and Japanese will be allowed to use any port, provided they omit calling at the British port of Hongkong.

Second—All steamships upon entering ports, must be subject to inspection by pickets of the anti-imperialist union.

The British consul-general at Canton protested to the Chinese Government that the regulations were in violation of Great Britain's treaty rights and were tantamount to a declaration of war. His stand is endorsed by many newspapers here, although it is remarked the Chinese Government is probably powerless in the matter.

The general conclusion accordingly is that the developments are a deliberate affront by the so-called Cantonese Government, which lacks international status and is regarded here as under the thumb of the Bolsheviks. The action, therefore, is held by some to be rather an act of piracy than of war. Nevertheless, the incident is looked upon as having created somewhat of a crisis.

EXCOURT CHASE RANGES FROM DOCKS TO CITY AND BACK

Unofficial Passenger on Admiral Line Boat Provides Unexpected Thrill

Immigration officers accustomed to dealing with large numbers of people at the docks became somewhat hardened, it is said, to the whimsicalities of the public. They dealt with soft yielding creatures who do as they are told without question; with hard, stubborn men who would do anything unless bludgeoned into it by the arguments of force. But seldom have the local authorities met a more unshakable determination than displayed by Simon Paul, a citizen of the State of California, who risked his life to land at Victoria last night.

Simon, it is alleged by the authorities, stowed away on the inbound Emma Alexander, docking here at 8.30 p.m. yesterday, joining the ship at San Francisco. When some question was raised as to his status on board he evinced an unusual determination to stem his ambition to land here. Just as the Dorothy was making ready to throw off her cables and stand out to sea the lone figure of a man popped over the rail and sped in a flying leap towards the dock. For a second it seemed as if he would pass down to his death between the ship and the dock, but he caught the rope and he sprang on to the edge.

Then the chase began. It led in frantic peripatetic circles along the docks, up the street, and as far as the Victoria Police station, where a constable stopped the fleeing figure. Simon once more was brought back to the docks, this time by the immigration shed. He was held until such time as the Emma Alexander sailed for Seattle. On board the Emma he was placed unshaken in his determination. But the official way was placed still firmly in front of his feet, and he was made to tread it.

PILOT IS FREED BUT PLANE HELD

Kenneth E. Geyer, Bremerton Pilot of Wrecked Seaplane, Exonerated

Following the sitting of the Immigration Board on the case of Kenneth E. Geyer yesterday afternoon the Bremerton pilot of the seaplane wrecked at Discovery Island was freed. Mr. Geyer told the authorities that he had been blown off his course. When landing at Discovery Island his machine was virtually out of gasoline, and could not have proceeded further.

Though the pilot is exonerated the seaplane is still held pending a report on the case by the Royal Canadian Mounted Police to Ottawa, and subject to what action the Federal authorities may take in the matter.

The seaplane, a large state color machine with an eight-cylinder engine, was towed to Oak Bay last evening, and is now tied up at the Oak Bay boathouse, where it is to be repaired. Its tail members and propeller are broken, and the machine damaged from the buffeting it sustained at Discovery Island, where it crashed in landing.

Five dollars worth of radio photographic, retouching or any other matter, for the latest competition starting to-morrow on The Times' children's page. There are other prizes too.

BRITAIN WORKING BACK TO PROSPERITY, SAYS SIR A. BALFOUR

phatically that no British Government could afford to neglect the advantage of Canada and the other Dominions and still survive. Such a policy would never be endorsed by the British electorate, he warned.

DOMINATING FACTOR

Sir Arthur declared that the dominating factor in the world's economic situation was the break down in trade. The world's chief need, he asserted, was to rebuild this trade as rapidly as possible.

Speaking of the European situation, he stated that Germany always had imported 2,500,000 a year more than she exported. A market of that sort could not be neglected and must be re-established. With the Dawes plan in operation Germany was coming back as a big purchaser in Britain and elsewhere.

The most serious difficulty, he said, was the drop in her exports as compared with her imports. This condition must be overcome, he declared.

"But after all," he said, "we often expect too much. After the next few years, which were a mere nothing as compared to the Great War, it took England twenty-one years to get back to normal."

UNEMPLOYMENT PROBLEM

Sir Arthur explained that as a result of the cessation of immigration in the war years England had 800,000 more men at the end of the war than before. These men formed a surplus of the unemployment problem and all of the housing problem. The decline in world trade, he said, accounted for the remainder of Britain's unemployed army.

"I don't see how we are ever going to get rid of unemployment in the future unless we give more attention to immigration," he declared, urging that Canada and England get together and bring large numbers of immigrants to this country. "Let us make men out of them instead of loafers," he suggested. He added that he intended to make a number of recommendations to Premier Baldwin on this problem when he returned home. He agreed with Canada, however, that this country needed more immigrants, not loafers, as immigrants.

INEQUALITY OF WAGES

Sir Arthur explained that Britain was suffering now from the same inequality of wages in industry where unskilled laborers often received more than skilled workmen. This had to be adjusted, he said, for the adjustment would be difficult in the extreme.

COAL SITUATION

The difficulties of the coal situation in England, Sir Arthur stated, really resulted from the fixing of a national, instead of a district wage, regardless of economic conditions. A similar disastrous wage plan, he feared, might prove the ruin of the railway system of England.

Sir Arthur referred to the demand in Canada that England buy all her food in Canada. Any government in England which attempted to bar wheat imports from countries outside the Empire by new tariffs, he declared, would be thrown out of office. "It is impossible," he declared.

"One condition we must follow is the necessity of politicians stopping interference in wages," Sir Arthur declared. "Politics and wages don't mix. Wages must be fixed on an economic basis between employer and employee."

The need of young men learning their trades more thoroughly was also stressed by the speaker.

WAGE CONVENTION

Sir Arthur opposed the proposal

THIS COUNTRY'S EXPORTS IN FOUR-MONTH PERIOD SHOWED GROWTH OF OVER $24,000,000

Value of Goods Exported From April 1 Till July 31 Was $351,407,904; Total Trade of Canada During That Period Was $45,000,000 Above Four Months of Last Year.

Ottawa, Aug. 21.—An increase of more than $45,000,000 in the grand total of Canadian trade during the first four months of the present financial year, as compared with the corresponding period last year, is shown by figures issued by the Department of Customs and Excise. The grand total of Canadian trade during the four months just ended was $647,865,298, while during the four-month period a year ago it amounted to $602,636,714.

Imports from foreign countries during the four months ended July 31 last were to the value of $292,063,091, as compared with $271,258,586, or an increase of $20,824,505.

Domestic exports also increased their total value this year, being $351,407,904 as against $327,309,594 during the four months of last year. This was an increase of $24,098,310.

Man on Trial Is Said to Have Planned Alibi

Los Angeles, Aug. 24.—Testimony intended to show Dr. Thomas Young was busy preparing an "alibi" a few days before his arrest on a charge of murdering his wealthy wife was offered at yesterday's session of the dentist's trial here.

Miss Harriet King, office manager of a downtown photograph studio, told the jury Young had visited the studio May 19, bringing portions of letters he wanted copied by the photostatic process.

"These are very valuable documents," she said he explained to her. "They concern a party who has disappeared and these papers show she is in the East. Guard them carefully for someone's life depends upon them."

The letters mentioned Mrs. Grace Grogan Young, the woman whom the defendant is alleged to have asphyxiated and thrown into a cistern last February, three months before his visit to the studio.

BEDTIME STORY Uncle Wiggily Ice Cream Cones

Copyright, 1925, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

(By Howard R. Garis)

So hot was the sun in Woodland that even the leaves on the trees seemed to shrivel up and curl, as if to make themselves smaller. The water of the pond, where Bully Bawly and Baby Frog sat, with just their noses sticking out, was warm, like new milk.

"Gollyation, but it's hot!" said Sammie Littletail, the rabbit boy, as he sat down under the shade of a linden tree.

"I wish I had a lot of ice cream—I wish I could live right inside an ice cream cone," said Susie, who was Sammie's sister. She had put her rubber doll down in a clam shell filled with water. It was the rubber doll's bath tub. "If it was only a little larger I would get in that clam shell bath tub myself," sighed Susie.

"Say, do you know," exclaimed Sammie, "that idea of yours of living in an ice cream cone isn't half bad. I wish the same."

Just then there was a rustling in the bushes near where the rabbit children sat, trying to keep cool, and Sammie got ready to jump, for he thought it might be the Weasel sneaking out to catch a little rabbit. But it was neither the Weasel nor any of the bad chaps. Instead, out of the bushes hopped Jingle and Jangle, two of the little bunny girls who lived with Uncle Wiggily in his hollow stump bungalow.

"Hello, Jingle and Jangle!" exclaimed Sammie. "Aren't you hot?"

"Very hot," answered Jingle.

"But we know how we can cool off and so can you," went on Jangle.

"How?" asked Susie. "I was just saying I'd like to live in an ice cream cone."

"Well," spoke Jingle, with a laugh, as she fanned herself with a broad, green burdock leaf. "I don't know where you can find an ice cream cone large enough for you to get inside of, Susie. But if you want some ice cream cones to eat, I know where you can get as many as you like."

"Pooh! I know, too!" cried Sammie. "You can get 'em in the ice cream store, but it takes five cents and we haven't got any money."

"Oh, no!" said Jangle. "These ice cream cones won't cost you a penny, even. Our Daddycum, Uncle Wiggily, has bought a whole big freezer of ice cream and he's filling cones with it and giving them away for nothing. He sent us out to find for him the children we could tell them to come and get Uncle Wiggily ice cream cones."

"You don't have to tell us that twice!" cried Sammie. "Whoop! I'm going! Come on, Susie!" Away he hopped, followed by the three little bunny girls. And, surely enough, in rabbit girls. He sent us out to find for him the children we could tell them to come and get Uncle Wiggily ice cream cones."

"You don't have to tell us that twice!" cried Sammie. "Whoop! I'm going! Come on, Susie!" Away he hopped, followed by the three little bunny girls. And, surely enough, in rabbit girls. He sent us out to find for him the children we could tell them to come and get Uncle Wiggily ice cream cones."

Uncle Wiggily, allied the pastry cones with ice cream from the freezer and passed them out as fast as he could, with Nurse Jane Fussy and Mrs. Longears to help him. Sammie and Susie had as many ice cream cones as they wished, and so did all the other animal children, and no one had to pay anything, for Mr. Longears had bought the treat.

Away he hopped.

All of a sudden, though, when every one was feeling happy and jolly and quite cool, all of a sudden out of the bushes popped the Woolly Wolf.

"You are just in time, Mr. Wolf!" cried Uncle Wiggily.

"Do you mean I am in time to nibble your ears?" growled the bad chap.

"No, I mean you are just in time for an ice cream cone," said the bunny. "Here—have one." And he handed the Wolf a big one. But the rabbit had slyly broken off the bottom of the cone, and as soon as the Wolf took it the cold ball of ice cream dropped out of the cone and down on the toes of the bad chap.

"Oh, I'm freezing! My toes are so cold! Oh, I'm freezing and must cold!" Oh, I'm freezing and must cold! "I'll nibble you some other time, Uncle Wiggily." And hopping on the one paw, while he held up the other one, the Wolf ran away.

Then Mr. Longears gave away the more strawberry cones until all the animal boys and girls were as cool as cucumbers on ice. And if the rubber ball doesn't blow a puff of talcum powder in the face of the clock and make it wave its hands, the clock story will be about Uncle Wiggily's snowballs.

Zarelli, Local Boy, Carried Off Honors At Track Yesterday

Brought Three Winners and One Place Horse Home; Favorites Come Through

Delancy Only Long Shot Paid $21 For Straight Ticket; Track Record Broken

Zarelli, a Victoria boy, took the jockey honors at the Willows track yesterday in the fifth day of the Columbia Country Club meet. He brought home three winners out of four mounts, the other finishing in second place. Close finishes featured the races with the public choices winning with one exception.

In the second race the only long shot of the day came through when Delancy romped home to reward his backers with $21 for a straight bet. This was easily the best price of the day, but was shut off by Jockery Emery paid $6.50, $2.75 and $2.20.

NEW MARK
Another feature of the programme was that Lady Berrillion, in the sixth race, broke the track record for five furlongs by covering the distance in 55.4 seconds. The previous record was 57 seconds flat, and has not been broken for a number of years.

In the first race Mary Emery, the second favorite, with Handelle up, broke fast from the barrier and after holding the lead all the way she won pulled up. Bittern, who was third, and had no excuse, Skyrack, who was third, after breaking slowly, tried to get through on the rail several times, but was shut off by Jockery Emery paid $6.50, $2.75 and $2.20.

ONLY UPSET OF DAY
Coming through on the rail down the home stretch Zarelli piloted Delancy home in the second event for the only upset of the day. After trailing the leaders until the final turn the winners closed the gap, winning handily. Sea Beach experienced considerable trouble, being carried wide at the first turn by Dolly Mine. He came on gamely, but failed to catch the leader. Wide Barber was third. The winner paid $21, $5.70 and $2.70.

In the third event Dark Ages was the class of the field, winning easily. Dark Ages had the speed and was well in hand at the finish. Kinetic moved up on the back stretch, but never was dangerous. Skyrack, who ran his usual race. The first horse paid $3.40, $2.50 and $2.50.

Jockey Zarelli again came into the limelight in the fourth event, when he brought Joe Shannon across the line in the lead. He was outrun for a half, but moved up on the lower turn and came around on the outside of his field to win in a wild drive. Sunset hugged the rail, but could not stand off the winner's challenge. Brig Pedena finished second. Joe Shannon paid $5.10, $2.55 and $2.20.

Another favorite came through in the fifth when Porter Ella assumed the lead after Ripcord had gone to the outside fence, and barely lasted to win. Col. Snider, after being unseated, came back at the end with a strong finish. St. Gallina ran a much improved race over her last effort. Porter Ella paid $4.10, $3.10 and $2.50.

Lady Berrillion was the easily the best horse in the sixth race and toyed with her competition. After driving to the turn she was pressed. Hamp was easily second beat, while Riverwood took third place honors. The winner paid $2.30, $2.40 and $2.40.

A CLOSE FINISH

The closest finish of the day was seen in the seventh race when Jockey Rowe brought Torrida home, beating out Bernice E. by a nose. Torrida won simply because Rowe outrode the contenders. He held off the early pace and found an opening at the head of the stretch, giving something in reserve for the finish. Quash took third place. Torrida paid $7.55 and $2.70.

Yesterday's results were:

Interest Keen In Scottish Football Matches Saturday

Rangers, League Champions, Will Meet Motherwell; Other Games Scheduled

Glasgow, Aug. 21 (Canadian Press Cable)—With one game now tucked away and the season definitely opened, soccer fans are speculating on the games scheduled for Saturday.

Kilmarnock gained two points on their own ground last week by the expense of Queens Park and this may encourage them to believe themselves as more than a match for the Airdrieonians.

Aberdeen, who traveled to Airdrie, are weaker this year, due to the transfer of Jackson, their 22-year-old international forward, to Huddersfield Town, the English League champions. Playing at home, last Saturday, they managed to draw with Hamilton Academicals in a regular orgy of goal scoring. The result was 3-0. Their game against the Airdrieonians will be a severe test.

LEAGUE CHAMPIONS PLAY

Rangers, the league titleholders, are scheduled for a game with Motherwell at the end of the season. Hamilton the day after tomorrow.

Not without interest is the game at Cowdenbeath when the home team takes on Dundee United. This is Cowdenbeath's second season in the First Division and it is United's first. The teams could be evenly matched.

Clydebank meets Celtic. Other games: St. Johnstone at Dundee. St. Mirren at Falkirk. Partick Thistle at Greenock. Raith Rovers at Hampden Park (Queens Park).

On Second Thought

Hans Wagner, Larry Lajole, Jack Graney, Terry Turner and other old timers put on a ball game in Cleveland the other day. It looked for all the world like the Washingtons taking a work out.

With all the wonders science has contributed to humanity nothing yet has been devised that will calm the anguish of a golfer who has just blown a two-foot putt.

The dummy is a necessity in football and bridge but it just comes naturally in wrestling.

An expert writes he hasn't seen a catcher call for a waste ball on a batter all year. The Coolidge economy plea has not been in vain.

It was mighty nice of the White Sox to give Dickie Kerr his job back and, of course, owner Comiskey paid him in full for all the time he was out—Wot!

Rogers Hornsby was suspended for three days for using a bad word with Umpire Sweeney. Evidently it doesn't pay to tell it to Sweeney.

No matter what happens, Babe Ruth will know he has had the most interesting and eventful medical season in his history.

Gandhi, Clocite, Weaver and other members of the Black Sox of 1919 are in Mexico playing ball. That country seems to draw more than its share of misery.

Ty Cobb is predicting the Reds will beat the Giants and the Pirates in the National League race. It's a good prediction even if it doesn't come true.

"It will take a million dollars to get me in the ring again," says Dempsey. We are beginning to think it will take a million men.

The two big league races may not be decided until the last week of the season and, Gosh! how the magnates dread it!

Five C's Are Now On Even Terms With Incogs For Honors

Defeated Cowichan Yesterday in Slow Game; Harlequins Won From Cowichan

Two easy victories were chalked up yesterday in the cricket tournament. At Beacon Hill the Five C's drew even with the Albions for the lead by defeating the Cowichan eleven by the score of 185 to 124.

Harlequins made another large score by vanquishing the Albions at Cranmore Road by 223 to 78.

At Beacon Hill Cowichan went to bat first but they were unable to do anything against the bowling of Eden Quinton and lost six of their wickets for fourteen runs. Neel played another not-out innings for seventeen, but was sent in last to bat.

Pillar batted well for the Five C's, making forty-three not out, while Sutton, Bredin and Eric Quinton all scored well.

Another easy victory was seen at Cranmore Road where the Harlequins accounted for the Albions. The winners went to bat first and Cobbett hung a fine score of fifty-nine. Cocks and Allwood made forty-three and thirty-seven. Cobbett also bowled exceedingly well taking seven wickets for twenty-one.

VETERAN CATCHER TO LEAVE MAJORS

"HANK" GOWDY

Veteran catcher of the New York Giants, who has signed to manage Columbus in the American Association next season. He will succeed Carleton Molesworth.

Gowdy first attracted attention in the majors in 1914 when he was first-string receiver for the Boston Braves, baseball's "miracle team," that leaped from eighth place in July to a pennant and world series victory. His work was greatly responsible for the success of the Braves. In the classic with the Athletics he batted .545, the highest mark ever reached in the Fall games.

Gowdy gained further distinction shortly after by being the first major leaguer to enlist in the World War. In 1923 he was traded to the Giants and has been with them since. His home is in Columbus.

was the initial club handicap, and produced keen interest among the members. Keen competition prevailed.

In the handicap challenge match W. E. McMicking carried off the honors by defeating M. J. Keys in the final match by the close score of 2 up and 1 to play.

J. H. Stevens won the final match in the second flight of the handicap challenge shield by defeating P. C. Abell 5 and 4.

In the final game of the third flight of the handicap challenge shield W. S. Ellis was winner by defeating F. S. Bone 2 up.

Vancouver, Aug. 21.—St. Augustines took the first game of the provincial senior "B" baseball championship semi-finals by downing Ex-King George 4-2 here last evening.

Babe Ruth Will Hike To Woods in Attempt To Stop Salary Cut

New York, Aug. 21.—A dispatch from Cleveland to The New York Evening World to-day says Babe Ruth, home run king, will not receive his salary of $52,000 a year when his present contract expires and he signs a new one. A slump in his batting, which now is under .250 for this season, will result in a reduction in his pay, says the dispatch.

When the present season ends Ruth will hike to the Canadian woods to get his legs into shape and try to recover his batting eye, thereby preventing the salary reduction, according to the dispatch.

Washington Regains Lead After Winning Twelve-Inning Game

Wild Throw and Two Singles Gave Senators 1-0 Victory; Athletics Lose

Pittsburg Won While Giants Were Subdued; Pirates Meet New York in Series

New York, Aug. 21.—Pennsylvania's hopes for exclusive rights to the world series were less bright to-day.

The Philadelphia Athletics were back in second place in the American League. Pittsburg leading the National League had a desperate and formidable giant to contend with in the first two games of a five-game struggle at the Polo Grounds.

A twelve-inning duel won by Washington, one to nothing, carried the world's champions back in the American League leadership by a full game yesterday as the Mackmen suffered their third straight defeat from the Browns, 7-4. The reverse dropped Philadelphia from the post for the first time in slightly more than a month. A home run by Rice and a triple by Sisler in the ninth

WILD THROW HELPED
The Senators hit Miller rather freely but were extended three extra frames by Cleveland before they could insert a finishing blow. A wild throw and singles by Rice and Sisler put the game across for the champions. Zachary quit after the eighth for a pinch hitter, and Marberry then hurled for the champions.

GIANTS CONFIDENT
In spite of the fact they lost a hard-fought game to the Cubs yesterday, 5-3, while the Pirates were regaining their three-game advantage as a result of a flustered home by Cuyler, 2-1, the New York Giants to-day were loaded with trouble for the National League with their pitchers in top form. The four-time series champions were calling upon their fighting pluck for a Garrison finish.

TORONTO ARREST CAUSES SENSATION IN HAMILTON, ONT.

Hamilton, Ont., Aug. 21.—The arrest in Toronto Wednesday of Rev. M. A. Heldreth, pastor of the East Hamilton Spiritualist Church, has caused a local sensation.

Heldreth had been in the city only three months, but had become fairly well known and was regarded very favorably among the members of the church. He introduced materialization into the services. Before his advent the seances consisted merely of receipt of messages from the other world through mediums. Heldreth installed a cabinet in the hall, which he would enter while his wife and secretary stood guard outside, then a white form would fit from the cabinet, walk around the room, move tables and chairs and give other evidences of its presence.

Heldreth was arrested at a spiritualist meeting Wednesday night on a charge of fraud. Detectives present declared he had announced that "the Saviour will appear to-night." A few minutes later they alleged he appeared, purporting to be a spirit, covered with a white gown and wearing a false beard.

RABBITS SECTION AT WILLOWS FAIR HAS MADE PROGRESS

Best Show in Canada is Opinion of Experts

Experts in rabbitry pronounce the collection of animals shown at the Willows Fair to be the finest exhibition of the kind in Canada. In number of entries, size of animals and fur quality no previous show has compared with the display which fills the spacious special building. Judging of the rabbit sections at the fair proved to be one of the most arduous tasks laid before any group of experts officiating in any class at the exhibition. More time was required in making close decisions than in any other department. The progress of island rabbit fanciers towards perfection is very general. Fine imported breeding stock having flourished exceedingly well in the mild climatic conditions prevailing on Vancouver Island.
